this work comes at an opportune hour a time in which many complain that contemporary theology lacks a general theory of sacraments chauvet charts a reorientation in sacramental theology from the scholastic treatments which appropriated the metaphysical categories of causality and substance to develop an essentially instrumentalist appreciation of grace in favor of an approach through the category of symbol in this approach the subject is as much grasped and transformed by the symbolic representation as is the object being interpreted chauvet commands a wealth of scholarship which he deploys to powerful effect his work in developing a foundational theology of sacramentality will remain the standard for years to come this volume is a first ever companion to the intellectually and pastorally stimulating work of louis marie chauvet one of the most important systematic theologians of liturgy and sacraments in recent times in this trans atlantic venture pairs of leading thinkers continue the development of sacramental liturgical theology along six lines of chauvet s thought fundamental theology scripture and sacrament ecclesiology liturgy and ethics theology and the social sciences and the theological anthropology of symbolism embracing his constant attention to faith is actual practice in history these francophone and anglophone authors test numerous of chauvet s insights in the face of new challenges for the church and world the ongoing mediation of the humanity of god revealed in the crucified and risen christ louis marie chauvet retired in 2008 from the faculty of theology at the institut catholique de paris while continuing his work as pastor of saint leu la foret in the diocese of pontoise just outside paris he is author of symbol and sacrament a sacramental reinterpretation of christian existence and the sacraments the word of god at the mercy of the body both published by liturgical press philippe bordeyne is professor of theological ethics and dean of the faculty of theology at the institut catholique de paris bruce t morrill sj holds the edward a maloy chair of catholic studies in the divinity school at vanderbilt university where he is also professor of theological studies in addition to numerous journal articles book chapters and reviews he has published several books most recently encountering christ in the eucharist the paschal mystery in people word and sacrament paulist press 2012 his most recent book with liturgical press is divine worship and human healing liturgical theology at the margins of life and death pueblo liturgical press 2009

the regional contributions from africa and asia show how the old european made denominational differences fade in the light of african instituted churches or pentecostalism reshaping protestantism is not a backward oriented project of reconstructing the original but makes use of the inner protestant pluralism to cope with globalization and changing religious landscapes who reads through the different articles can only come to the conclusion yes there is a contribution to be expected from mainline protestantism in all its variety few books in theology have faced the twentieth century with all its horrors and yet rejoiced the redemptive christian antidote as convincingly as joseph ratzinger s 1968 masterpiece introduction to christianity in gift to church and world john cavadini and donald wallenfang present papers from the conference held at the university of notre dame to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of this classic book s publication and through it ratzinger s lasting influence on the world of christian theology bishops priests and lay men and women set their hands to the trowel of tribute honoring the legacy of joseph ratzinger and the pivotal role he has played in the recent history of the catholic church covering ratzinger s work on fundamental theology philosophical theology dogmatic theology spiritual theology and pedagogy the essays gathered here shed new light on ratzinger s theological genius throughout the authors return to his compelling expression of the divine call to reawaken to our true identity as beloved children of god altogether readers will deepen their appreciation and understanding of the theological contributions of joseph ratzinger and his continued relevance to mission and evangelisation today with the silent glimmer of god s spirit gives a comprehensive account of recent developments in sacramental theology in the context of postmodern thinking how can we think and speak about the sacraments in our postmodern world with its suspicion of static and rigid categories the author resolves this by using the concepts of gift and icon both of which imply interaction between giver and recipient between the reality looked at and the one looking book jacket an enquiry into the sacramental theology of chauvet heidegger and benedict xvi this study moves beyond postmodern trends in catholic eucharistic theology by exploring the works of bernard lonergan and louis marie chauvet having learned from both chauvet s critique of metaphysics and lonergan s development of a critical metaphysics we hope to offer a fruitful understanding of traditional eucharistic doctrines that is able to respond to some contemporary problems and shed some light on the great mystery that stands at the center of christian worship from the introduction postmodern theologians have been critical of using metaphysics to interpret the presence of christ in the eucharist liturgical sacrifice and sacramental causality preferring instead a symbolic approach lonergan s critical metaphysics however offers an account of knowing and being that resists attempts to pit metaphysics against the symbolic and moves sacramental theology into the real world of meaning the result is a theology of the eucharist grounded in tradition that speaks to today s believers
